

TJRSTJRSTRISTE

DJ, Producer
Electro/Dance/House

Born from an unknown illness that keeps him always sad, tjrstriste (ttt) creates music that exists in paradox, where melancholy meets ecstasy. His sound blends hypnotic electronic rhythms with emotional depth, crafting a universe where each song feels like a cinematic chapter. More than music, ttt offers an immersive experience where visuals and sound tell a singular, unfolding story. Recent collaborations with Claudia Bouvette and Cshmr further expand his sonic world, adding new shades to his ever-evolving palette of sadness and beauty.
